UMES

HAWK YEARBOOK

1992

Kiah Hall, a new addition to the UMES campus, not only looks serene and peaceful, but it also marks the beginning of a new and improved University of Maryland Eastern Shore. Kiah Hall houses the main offices and classrooms for the Department of Business and Economics, Computer Science, and the Physical Therapy program. The opening of this beautiful structure shows that UMES is expanding and continuing to soar towards academic excellence!!

Adieu

*Farewell to a friend
Who has always been
The sweetest woman
With the strength of men*

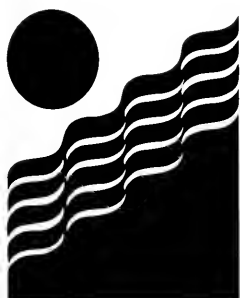

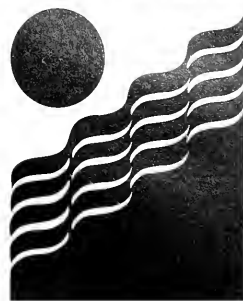

*Farewell to you
Who saw that I grew
And who always knew
I could do it, too.*

*Farewell for now
To your know how.
Wipe fatigue from your brow
And take a bow.*

*Farewell to a flower
Whose love is a shower:
Soft and sweet, never sour;
Always giving hour on hour.*

*Farewell to you
Adieu.*

THE QUEEN TAKES A DIVE

GONNA MAKE YOU SWEAT
 Tired of being bored on Friday Night? These student cured the weekend blues by coming out to one of the many SDC parties.

WHAT QUARTER IS THIS?
 A popular winter activity for many students is attending the home basketball games.

STUDENT CONSTRUCTORS DO IT WITH WOOD
 Senior, Anthony Moore works diligently to complete a project for one of his Construction Management courses.

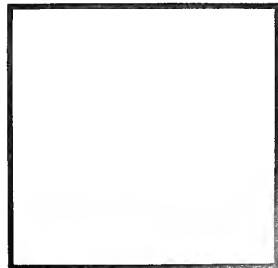

Student Life

WHAT'S UP?

This year UMES offered a wide range of activities that students were able to participate in. Pool parties and SDC dances proved to be popular attractions, as did the Hawk basketball games.

LADIES WITH AN ATTITUDE . . .
Jill Steele, Shonda Armstrong, Delphine Lambert, and Joyce Maxwell pose for our camera at the Coronation Ball.

Lamont and Charles shows pride in their Ole' Black and Gold, and the ladies add a nice touch.

Class Queens Make A Splash

Splish - Splash

Where were all the sexy bodies of UMES on a
Saturday Night?

At Tawes Gymnasium's swimming pool. The Class Queens of UMES sponsored a pool party and the sexy bodies came out in masses!

After the dive Jackie shows off a more seductive side!!

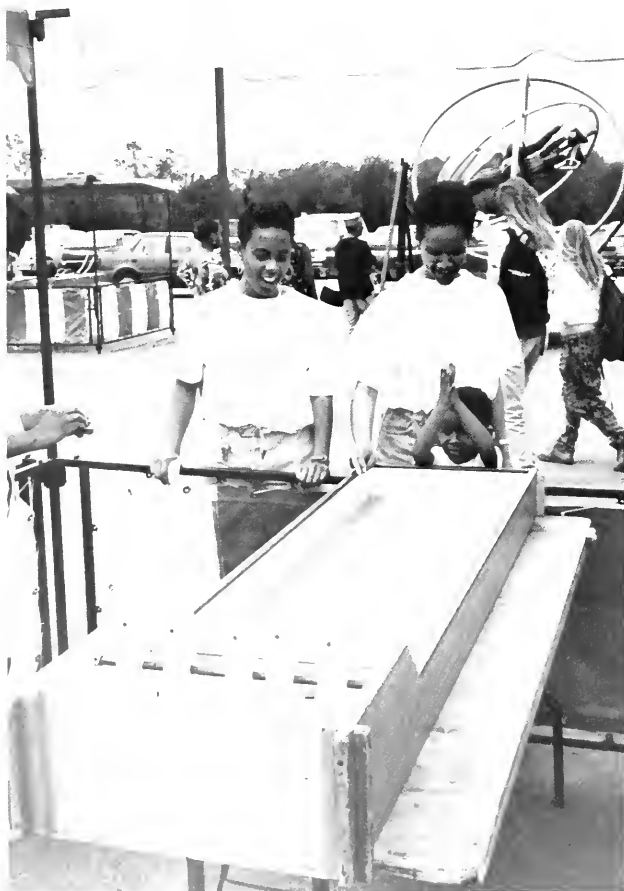

Spring Fest 1992 Open House- Catch the Spirit!

These fellas have the perfect view of the Spring Fest activities. A record number of visitors came to visit the campus for Open House.

Beautiful weather and a large crowd enticed many vendors to display their wares at UMES.

Katoshia Artis and friends try their luck at miniature bowling.

Officer Savage probably wished that he hadn't ticketed so many cars, as he is about to get dunked.

Open House Stepshow- Greeks on the Move!

The brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. were the talk of the Spring '92 stepshow.

Fall '91- Unfinished Business.

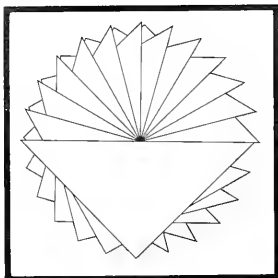

The Fall '91 neophytes of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

Tyra and Dionne show that the Ladies of Finer Womanhood can step hard and have fun at the same time.

LADIES FIRST!

Sisters do it for themselves at UMES.

Betsy Bello, Shelly Murphy, Onika Huggins, and Lannet West grin mischievously as the Hawk 1992 corners them in the Carver Hall Atrium.

Pam, Raeshawn, and Delphine look to pleased about getting "caught in the action" during Homecoming Week. The SGA members work diligently with, and for the student body.

The Ladies of the Omega Essence Sweetheart Court came to the SGA Election Speeches to support their sister Terri Smith. The Que-E's comprise one of the largest auxiliary organizations on campus.

Seniors Leah Carter, Tasha Barnes, and Pam Felder have all worked for ORL over the last few years. As graduation approaches, these talented women prepare to take their expertise into the "real world".

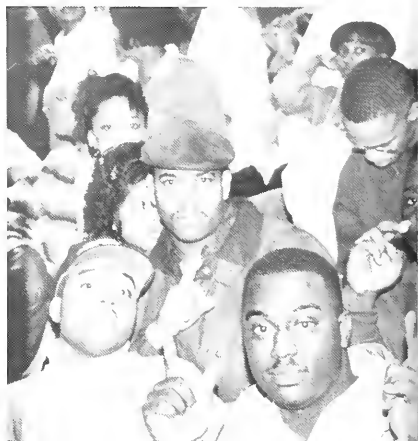

Juniors Joyce Maxwell and Jill Steele are honor students from the Philly area. These Criminal Justice and Sociology majors, respectively, will attend the Ronald E. McNair Program at College Park over the summer.

Betsy Bello is a junior Pre-Nursing major from Puerto Rico. In addition to being an active Alpha Angel, she is a familiar face to anyone who has been to the SDC front desk.

UMES Students at Play Indoors . . .

Junior Nathaniel Brown is a Construction Management major from Baltimore. Here, he shows why he was voted "Best Body."

Jackie Mims and LaTisha Bell were two of the hostesses at the Class Queens pool party.

. . . and Outdoors Too!

Brothers Shaun Evans, David Hurlock, Lisa Body, and Jakki Wyndham share a final moment together before graduation.

In May, a large contingent of concerned students attended a protest at Salisbury State University.

Byron Harley is a junior from Washington D.C.. He also attended the protest at SSU.

Byron Logan has been a member of Kappa Alpha Psi for three years. We caught him at the Greek Picnic with Houdini, a 3 ft. Python.

Brothers William and David Hurlock are natives of Jamaica.

Around Campus: UMES Has a New Look.

The Student Development and Cultural Recreation Center was built in 1976. Since then, the campus has undergone many changes. The addition of the sitting mall has enhanced the beauty of the SDC and Wicomico Hall.

The Ella Fitzgerald Center for the Performing Arts. A facelift was given to the front area of this building in 1992.

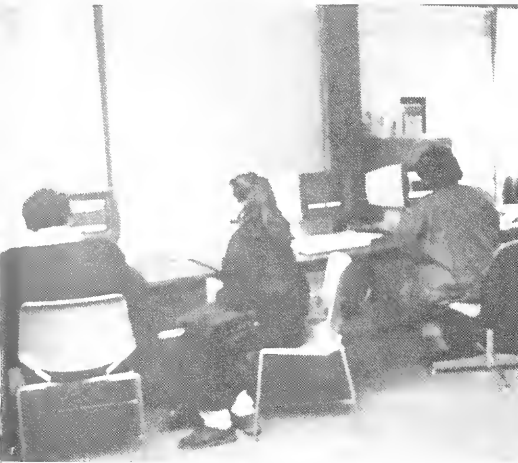

The R. H. Thomas and T. Briggs Arts and Technologies Center was dedicated in a ceremony in 1991.

A student vigorously takes notes in a class located in the newly renovated Hall.

registration process has gotten easier at UMES. No more waiting, and no long lines - what a relief.

Instructor lectures a science course in the Carver Hall Auditorium.

This instructor teaches Construction Management courses in the Arts & Technologies Building.

The Hawk

Reprint from HAWK Yearbook 1979

The Hawk is the most feared bird in the world. Its sharp curved claws, or talons, and powerful feet have viselike grip to catch, crush, and carry off its prey.

Hawks build bulky, loosely constructed, but stable nests of twig and bark. The males and females nest alone, and defend their territory and privacy from all others, Hawks included.

Female Hawks lay 2-6 eggs which hatch in 3-4 weeks. The males help to hatch the eggs as well as to care for the young. Hawks sometimes mate for life, and often use the same nest year after year.

Hawks seldom gather in groups, except during battles with other species such as bison, eagles, aggies, hornets, etc. The Hawk is a keen-sighted, and often travels with great speed. He kills almost every type of mammal and birds.

The Hawk is the King of the Heaven and the Earth!! Beware

“YOU CAN QUOTE ME
ON THAT!”

Homecoming 1992

An enthusiastic crowd cheers as rapper MC Lyte performs her Classic hit "I Cram 2 Understand U." She was just one of the featured artists that performed at this year's Homecoming celebration. Other celebrities such as, A Tribe Called Quest, and Chris Thomas also visited UMES, encouraging everyone to "Awaken the Afrikan in all of Us."

It's a tough call, as four contestants battle it out for a Homecoming T-Shirt and tickets to see A Tribe Called Quest.

It was very close but we have a winner. As the crowd screams for more, Karl crowns dancer #1 as the best Doo-Doo Brown dancer at UMES.

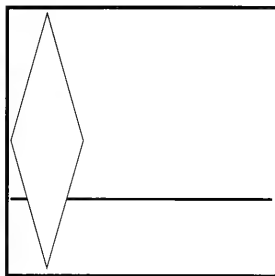

Karl and Rhonda had a tough time encouraging their fellow Hawks to come down and show their stuff to the packed Tawes Gymnasium.

The three-point shot was also a part of the SGA sponsored half-time contests. The winner of this event also won a UMES Homecoming 1992 T-Shirt, and the chance to win tickets to see A Tribe Called Quest.

GO HAWKS!

UMES shows school spirit.

As the B-More crew looks on, they have a well known reputation for vocally adding a little spice to the National Anthem. They are also known for being the main spark in exciting the UMES crowd to urge the Hawks on to victory.

At one of the Pre-Homecoming Basketball games, Karl White and Rhonda Terry gave out Homecoming T-Shirts to those students who participated in the SGA sponsored "Doo-Doo Brown" Dance Contest.

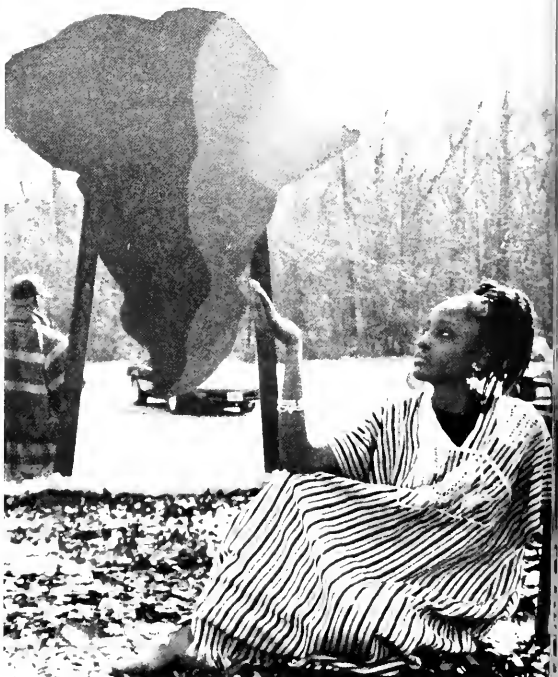

Many hours of hard work went into building this year's floats. With the help of local residents, UMES students were able to showcase their artistic talents in an Africentric way!

The Cheerleaders and Pom-Poms wait anxiously for the beginning of the parade. They realize the important part they will play in getting the crowd "Hyped"!

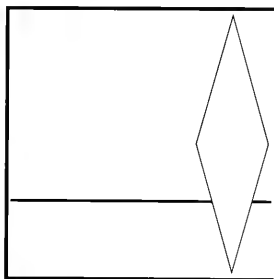

Senior Eric Brown and the brothers of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Incorporated, Alpha Mu Chapter, show off their Hawk pride, as one of the many organizations that participated in the parade.

Delphine Lambert, a junior from New York, was the featured model on the Africentric float "Proud of Our Roots," constructed by the Student Government Association.

WELCOME HOME HAWKS

UMES celebrates at the annual Homecoming parade.

Dr. Herman Franklin, Vice-President of Student Affairs, and Mr. Ronnie Holden, Vice-President of Administrative Affairs, wave to the crowd as they begin the parade procession.

It was a sunny, mild February morning in Princess Anne as UMES faculty, alumni, and students gathered to celebrate the beginning of Homecoming Weekend. This year's Homecoming theme had a more Africentric message than previous years, as the many T-Shirts, and floats showed Black pride!

Renee Peters, Captain of the Pom-Pom Squad, is all smiles as she leads the squad through the Princess Anne Town Center.

The Ladies of Delta Sigma Theta show why they are known as the Ladies of Distinction.

Alpha Omicron Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. opened this year's step show.

The brothers of Kappa Alpha Psi stressed the stopping of Black on Black violence.

Visiting Brothers of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. came from College Park to support their brothers at UMES.

Miss UMES profiles around the step show floor before her fellow sorors of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. start their show.

Ladies of Zeta Phi Beta show off "y" moves to impress the judges. The moves had enough effect to sway judges to vote them as Step Champions of the sororities at UMES.

Also visiting from College Park were the brothers of Omega Psi Phi. The Ques came out and showed the crowd why they are known as the "Nasty Q-Dogs".

STEP SHOW

Greeks showed their moves!

This year's step show was held at the Salisbury Civic Center. The demand on the part of the students caused the Pan-Hellenic Council to make the move to Salisbury.

Visiting chapters of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. and Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. stepped in place of their brothers. There was a nice turn-out at this year's step show, it was well organized, and the crowd control was excellent. This can be attributed to the hard work of Ms. Melissa Crymes, Pan-Hellenic Council President. Many returning UMES alumni came out to support their respective Sorority or Fraternity. The brothers of Kappa Alpha Psi, Gamma Xi Chapter, took home the first place trophy for the men, while the ladies of Zeta Phi Beta Eta Beta chapter won the first place trophy for the women. In comparison to last year's Homecoming Stepshow, this year's show was less of a hassle and no violence broke out among the different organizations. Many students were very happy with the over-all show and they look forward anxiously to next year's show.

At Homecoming 1992, MC Lyte (above) made the crowd stand on their feet as she went back in time and performed some of her classic hits. She was well received by the UMES students and the Princess Anne community.

Many students appreciated the friendly stage presence of MC Lyte, and how she interacted with the crowd while she performed.

After her electrifying concert, MC Lyte was interviewed by the school's radio station - WESM 91.3 FM.

MC Lyte (right) tells the homecoming crowd to stop the senseless violence in the black communities and start uniting as one race!

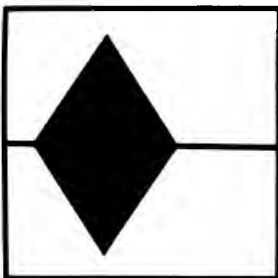

MC Lyte (left) was sincere as she sang "Self-Destruction." Lyte's message was clear, STOP THE VIOLENCE BROTHERS AND SISTERS!

The crowd (bottom) jumped, screamed, and begged for more as MC Lyte brought down the house with "Poor Georgie."

"LYTE AS A ROCK"

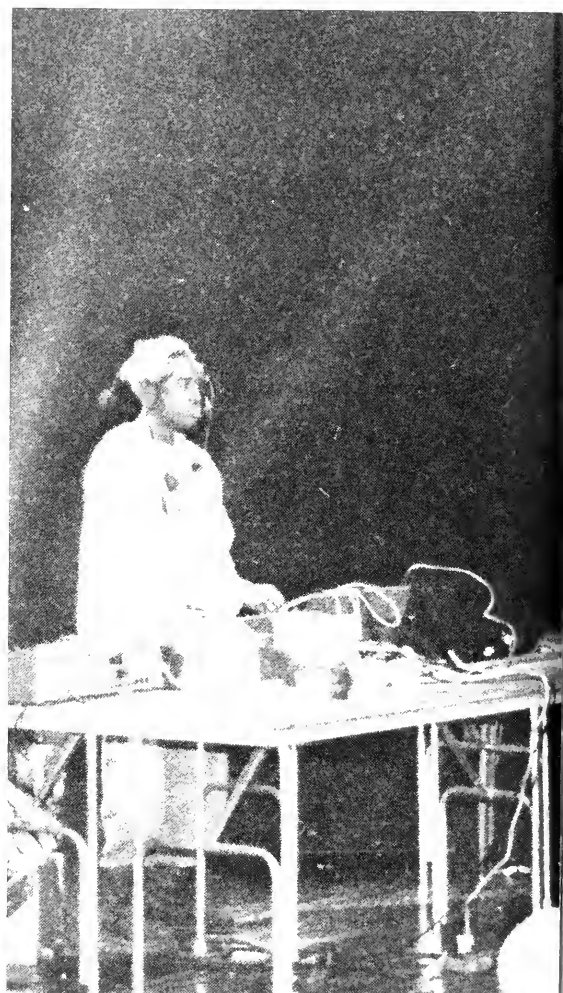

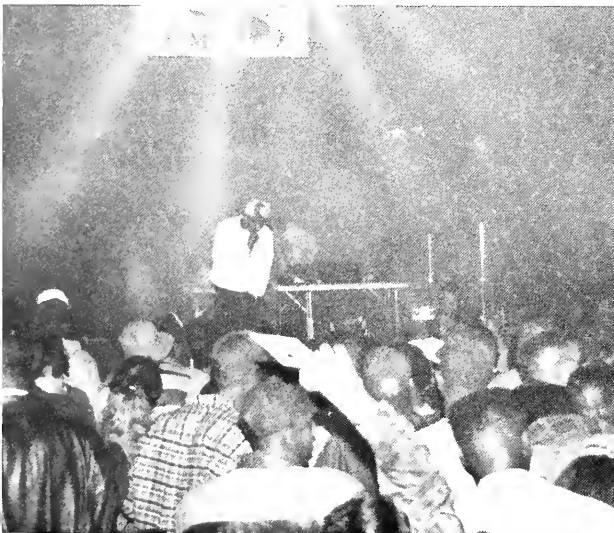

Saturday Night's Homecoming Show was highlighted with a performance by MC Lyte. Chris Thomas served as the Master of Ceremonies for the Saturday Night's events. Even with the big delay and the cancellation by The Leaders of the New School, the concert was a major success.

Chris Thomas, star of Black Entertainment Television's "Rap City," assumed the role of Master of Ceremonies at the MC Lyte show. Thomas' unique brand of humor entertained and amused the restless audience.

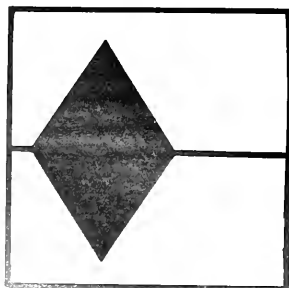

New York based rap artists "A Tribe Called Quest" performed before a capacity crowd in the PAC. Tribe's Thursday show is considered to be one of the best Homecoming concerts produced at UMES

CHECK IT

Rap Music Rocks UMES

Rap music dominated Homecoming 1992. Local talent was showcased before the MC Lyte and Tribe shows. The only disappointment was the abrupt cancellation of the Leaders of the New School, who claimed to be lost in College Park.

Local talent from UMES was showcased in Thursday's Show. Rob and his crew prepared the crowd for Tribe and the other comedians.

Miss UMES, Jackie Mims, and the "UMES Fly-Girls" danced to Vanessa
Williams "The Comfort Zone." As one of MC Lyte's opening acts, these talented young ladies quickly grabbed the attention of the men in the crowd.

Miss UMES and her Royal Court are acknowledged during the half-time program.

Catch The Hawk Spirit!

UMES VS COPPIN

Much to the disappointment of the home crowd at the Salisbury Civic Center, the UMES Fighting Hawks lost to the Coppin State Eagles 63-80. The Lady Hawks fared better winning their game 71-62.

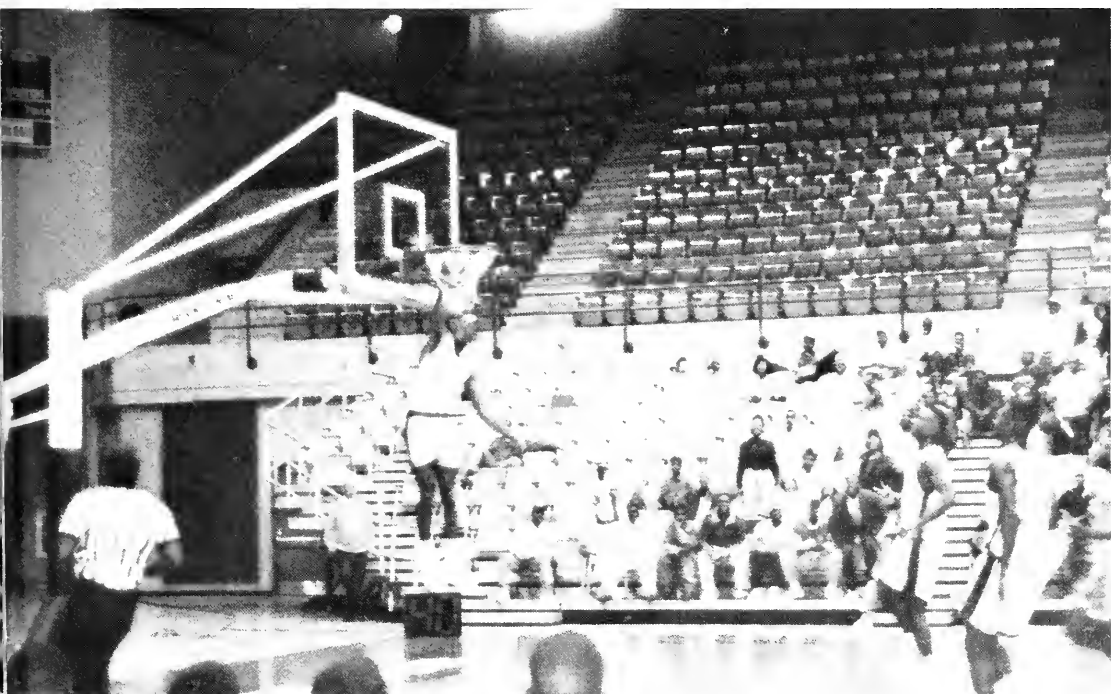

It appears that the UMES Hawk can't make every fan happy.

With one of the few highlights of the homecoming game, Mike slams one home.

“Awakening The Afrikan In All Of Us!”

Imeh and Juanique perform in the homecoming play “The Colored Museum”, directed by super-director and UMES graduate, Roger W. Davis.

SGA members work diligently on the floats that were showcased during the homecoming parade.

Homecoming 1992: Open Your Third Eye

Anthony Moore, graduating senior and yearbook photographer, is all smiles standing beside Rap Artist MC Lyte.

Liam (Cazz) Showell, Delphine (Nubian Sister Dee) Lambert, and other SGA members give up their spare time to work on homecoming floats.

Bro. Malcolm White, SGA president, talks with Bro. Malcolm about the deep message Eraka Rouzorundu presented to the knowledge hungry audience.

Eraka Rouzorundu, Africentric teacher, became a common name at UMES. Her lectures were provocative and enlightening.

Lori Taylor and Rhonda Terry sit back and relax after the Tribe Called Quest Show. Both are very active members in the SGA.

Students came out to hear Eraka Rouzoroudu, as she presented a very conscious raising lecture on African History.

The UMES Student Security Staff played an important part in the Homecoming festivities.

UMES Students "Check The Rhyme," as Tribe hits "Buggin Out".

"Did you hear that sister speak? She dropped crazy Science," was the reaction of several students that heard Eraka speak.

Special Events 91-92

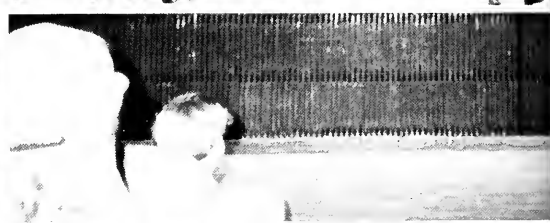

The family of Ms. Jacqueline L. Mims is visibly excited as she is coronated Ms. University of Maryland Eastern Shore 1991-1992. Ms. Mims is a native of Greenport, New York, and she is a senior majoring in Criminal Justice. Her theme for the coronation: "Where Do We Go From Here," challenged the audience to strive for higher goals.

Gerald Alston (right) was just one of the many Drama Society members that participated in "Brother Eyre".

The cast (below) of "Let Him That Stole, Steal No More" gets ready to take a bow after their final performance.

"Brother Eyre," was a heart warming play that showed the hardships a deeply religious old man faced from a young choir and director.

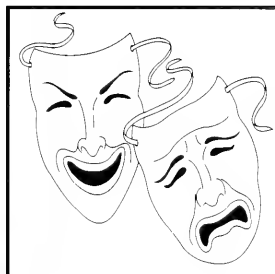

Director and playwright, Dr. D. Dameron Johnson or Dr. D., directed "Brother Eyre," and "Let Him That Stole, Steal No More". Dr. Johnson is also director in UMES' well attended Theatre.

"MOM D"

Dr. Johnson does it again!

Charles Franklin, played the very tired up and "holy ghost filled" preacher in "Let Him That Stole, Steal No More". The Jazz Band, under the direction of John Lamkin II, gave the musical support needed to give the play a down home church feeling.

Dr. Dameron-Johnson has been an asset to UMES since she first started working here. This year she directed two productions in addition to Dinner Theatre. Her witty and loving personality has rightfully given her the title as Mom D of the Drama Society.

Dr. Della Dameron-Johnson gave a poetry reading as a part of February's Black History Month celebration.

Eraka Rouzorundu captivated UMES with "Awakening" lecture series.

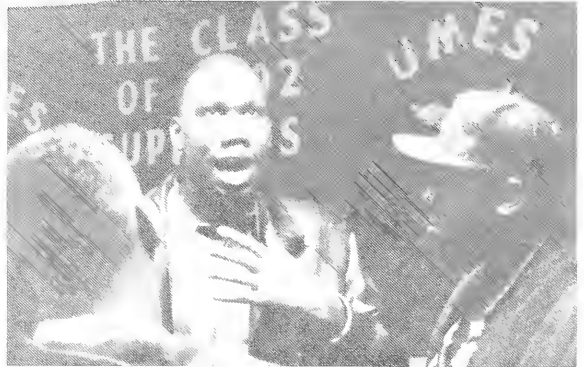

KRS-One found a quiet moment to sign an autograph for senior Jakki Wyndham.

Dr. Dameron-Johnson

Eraka relaxes in the SGA office before her lecture.

KRS-One drops some knowledge on the serious minded students.

Lectures Captivates UMES

This year, UMES featured a wide array of lectures and seminars designed to educate the student body. Eraka Rouzorundu became a familiar (and popular) face on campus as she delivered her Africentric lecture series titled "Awakening". Rapper KRS-One lectured at the PAC in October. His lecture uplifted many.

Carnation Wooten and Veda Teagle (below) carry on conversations with other student leaders at the annual Awards and Recognition Ceremony.

Benjamin Pitts (right) seems somewhat happy to receive his award for being an active member of the Student Activity and Advisory Board.

Student Leaders

Dr. Hytche (left) sits at the head table talking with Dean White. President Hytche expressed his pride in having such effective and intelligent student leaders here at UMES.

Nonet Thomas and Miss UMES, Jackie Mims (below), were among the many student leaders honored at the beautiful luncheon.

Duane (above) and his assistant stand by and make sure everything is just right. This is just one of the many functions that Marriot caters at UMES.

Veronica Palmer (left) looks very excited to receive her award for being President of the Drama Society. Veronica is a hard working student, and she has been part of the Drama society for three years.

Student Luncheon Honors the leaders of the future.

Melissa Crymes, Keith Sewell, and Carmellio McCullough were recognized for presiding over the Panhellenic Council, Omega Psi Phi, and Kappa Alpha Psi respectively.

JACKIE!

Miss UMES' Coronation

Jackie Mims was crowned this year's Miss UMES. Her theme for coronation was "Where Do We Go From Here".

Teresa Jones (below), Miss UMES 1990-1991, makes her final coronation walk as Miss UMES.

At the Coronation Ball, held in the Student Union, the newly crowned Miss UMES is escorted by Andrew Gulley.

Jackie can't stop smiling while Pres. Hytche crowns her as Miss UMES.

SGA President, Karl White, assists in the transferring of the cape.

Do you think she could be any happier?
I don't think so!

Jackie waves to the admiring audience as she is finally crowned and given a dozen of roses.

UMES of old and the soon to be crowned Miss UMES take a walk together at this year's coronation.

Miss UMES 1990-1991, Teresa Jones, comes back home to crown the newly appointed Miss UMES, Jackie Mims.

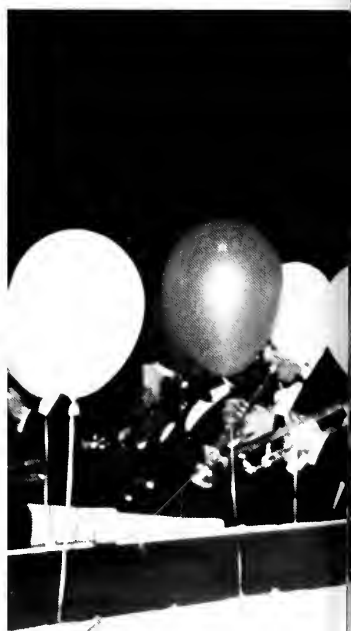

TERESA COMES BACK

This year's coronation welcomed a very familiar face to the UMES campus. Teresa Jones, a graduate of UMES in 1991, came back home to pass her crown to Ms. Jackie Mims. Teresa Jones was a very active student leader during her stay at UMES. She was a Campus Pal, member of the Student Government, Criminal Justice Club, and also served as President of Delta Sigma Theta, Sorority Incorporated, Nu Rho City-Wide Chapter. Teresa graduated from UMES with a Bachelors Degree in Pre-Law/Sociology, and she is presently working and plans to attend UMAB Law School in the Fall of 1992. Ms. Jones was well received by her many friends and professors she left behind, and of course she was given a warm welcome by her fellow sorors of DST.

Miss UMES looks grand, as she and her court are honored at the Coronation Ball that followed the ceremony.

Jackie Mims Crowned Miss UMES 1991-1992

Isn't she lovely? Was the thought that came to the minds of the captivated audience when Ms. Mims stepped on stage wearing her elegant dress. With the background posters, lights, and arrangement of balloons this year's Coronation was a major success.

KNOWLEDGE

UMES CLASS QUEENS

Thomassina McCoy, a native of Baltimore, MD, was voted Miss Freshman by her peers. Ms. McCoy was also voted as having the best body among females at UMES.

Latisha Bell, also a native of Baltimore, MD, was voted Miss Sophomore. She is seen here being escorted by Michael Finley.

Miss Freshman, Thomassina McCoy, is being lead down the walk way by Gary Bennett at the Coronation Ball.

STRUT THEIR STUFF AT UMES' CORONATION

Rhonda Terry, a native of Mont Clair, New Jersey, was voted as Miss Junior 1991-1992.

Junior, Rhonda Terry, has been a very active member of the SGA her Sophomore year. Ms. Terry has recently been voted as Miss 1993.

Jennifer Mims, a native of New York, is this year's Miss Senior. Ms. Mims is the sister of Miss UMES Jackie Mims.

Ms. Mims, Miss Senior 1991-1992, pose for the camera and shows that she can turn heads like her younger sister. I guess their looks run in the family.

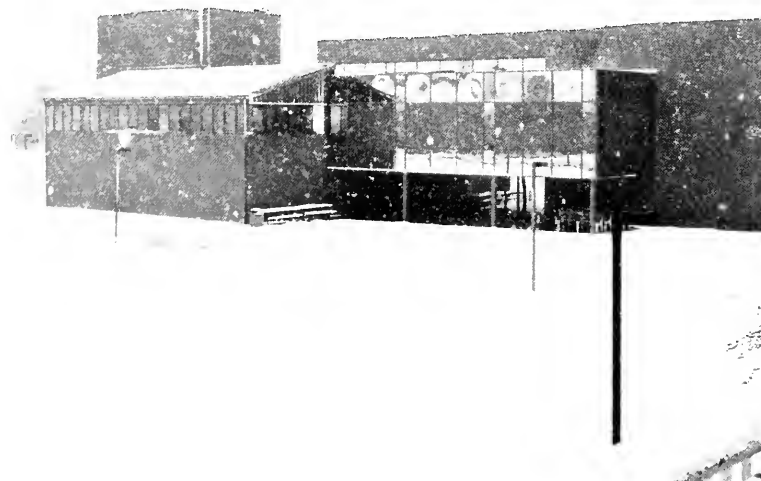

DEDICATION

Jack Brown is Remembered by UMES.

We, the staff of the Hawk 1992, felt that it was only fitting to close the Underclassman section with a page dedicated to their classmate.

Jack (Jay) Brown, III was born on January 2, 1972 to Jack and Carolyn Brown of Baltimore, MD. He departed this earthly life on Tuesday, September 10, 1991.

Jack was described by some of his peers and Student Affairs personnel as having an excellent sense of humor and highly disciplined.

As the snow fall lightly on the Student Development Center, students still remember Jack's smile as they passed on the way to the mail room.

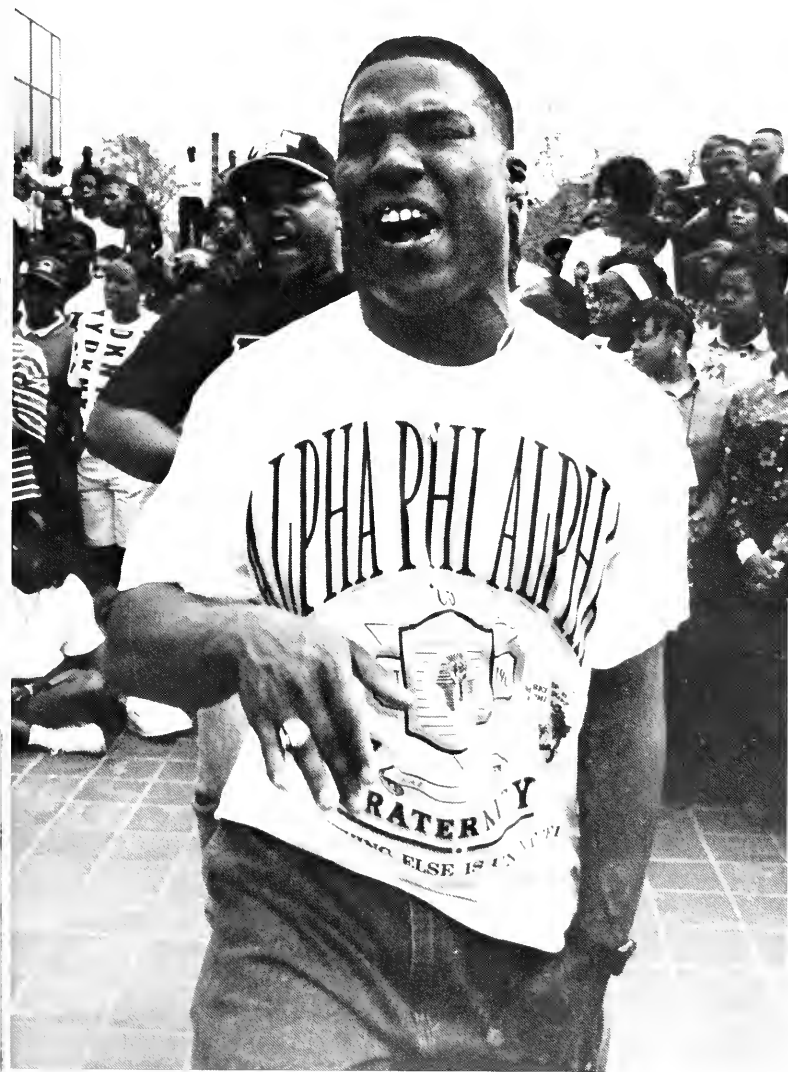

Many HRM majors remember walking through the halls of Somerset and receiving an encouraging word from Jack.

ORGANIZATIONS

Charles Fleming (left), a native of Baltimore, is a new member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.

There are over 25 chartered clubs, societies, fellowships, and Black Greek Lettered organizations at UMES.

Every campus organization is not featured in this section; however, those here represent a sampling of all that UMES has to offer their student body.

Student Government

Dedicated Students are the backbone of UMES.

Pam Felder, Rhonda Terry, Gwen Dixon, Lori Taylor, Lynn Calloway, Joyce Maxwell, Kim Prue, Tonya Brown, Karl White, KRS-One, William Showell, Pam Hawkins, Jakki Wyndham.

Student Government Election Speeches

SGA Presidential candidate, Sharon Richards, delivered an inspired, ambitious speech. The St. Kittian HRM major specifically addressed the concerns of the International Students.

Jewel Moore and Lorrie Armfield ran against each other for the title of Miss UMES.

Damon Stewart was a candidate for SGA Vice-President. This HRM major decided to take the straight forward approach - and won over the audience.

It's William Showell's turn to campaign for the SGA presidency, as Sharon Richards listens intently in the background.

Students Compete for SGA Offices

Mononda Terry was the third HRM major running for an office. This candidate for Miss UMES from New Jersey, was relaxed during her speech.

Christopher Hefley was a surprise candidate in the presidential election.

Kemaria Dorsey countered Damon Stewart by delivering an impassioned plea to the audience for change.

Esther Abu is a Sophomore from Ghana. She was one of the four students running for SGA President.

More SGA Elections

Terri Smith's speech was challenging and inspirational.

Six women ran for Miss UMES. Jewel Moore was one of those talented women.

Many students went to the Library Auditorium to hear what the candidates had to say.

More SGA Elections

Senior Class President, Keith Sewell, relentlessly grilled the candidates about their qualifications.

Monique Dennis, a Criminal Justice major, was another candidate for Miss UMES.

Rhonda may not have been seen behind that podium, but her message was definitely heard.

Helping Out

At UMES, auxillary organizations can boast of having more members than all of the Greek Lettered organizations combined. "Sweetheart Courts" such as the "Alpha Angels, Kappa Queens, Groove Gems, Que Essences, and Sigma Doves."

One former auxillary organization is the MIKA Club. The MIKA's, now known as Men Interested in Acquiring Knowledge and Achievement, have more than 10 members. The purpose of this organization is to expose students to different aspects of campus and community life, to motivate members to their highest academic & social potential, to engage in community service projects, to intensify pride in the organization and UMES, and to support the school by maintaining an active program of student and community service.

Ladies of Finer Womanhood!

The Eta Beta Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta is one of the more positive organizations at UMES.

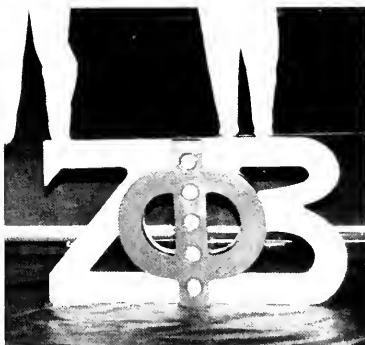

Founded in 1920 at Howard University, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. is one of the four Nationally recognized Black Greek Lettered organizations. The Eta Beta Chapter, here at UMES, is very active in community and on campus. Besides the various projects the Zetas have done on campus and in the Princess Anne, Salisbury area, they have been the step champions at UMES for 2 years straight

Senior, Melissa Wright, has been a member of Zeta Phi Beta since Fall 1989. Besides being Vice-President of her chapter, Melissa is the president of the UMES Chapter of the NAACP.

Renee Peters, Captain of the Pom-Pom Squad, looks uneasy as she prepares to experience a lesson in trust.

Kim looks as if her hands are pretty full, as the student leaders learn how to help one another.

Retreat

Students learn leadership

Last April, UMES sponsored a student leadership retreat in the woods. The event was well attended by students and faculty members.

Who's Taking The Picture?

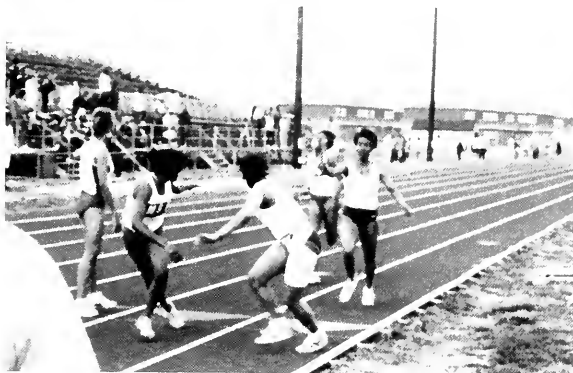

Senior, Anthony Moore, has been the committed photographer of this year's edition of the HAWK Yearbook. With all of his hard work, he should be able to enjoy himself a little. (Could his smile be any bigger?)

Marlon Kimbrow drives to the paint for a basket against the Lions of Lincoln University. Even with the losing season, the men's basketball team played with a lot of heart.

The Women's Track Team won the MEAC Championships and coach Hodge was voted Coach of the Year in the MEAC conference.

GO HAWKS

UMES Sports are fantastic!

There were peaks and valleys during the seasons of the various teams here at UMES, but all in all the teams always gave it 100% and what more can we ask for?

HAWKS BASKETBALL

The Lady Hawks finish 17-10 overall!!!

This year the Lady Hawks finished with an overall record of 17-10. They finished with a 12-4 record in the MEAC Conference. Many times during the season the Lady Hawks were ranked either #1 or #2. The hard work exhibited by these ladies paid off, and is reflected by their winning record.

Unfortunately, the Men's team could not say the same about their season. They ended with an overall record of 3-25, with a 2-15 record in the MEAC Conference. Even though their record may not show it, the Men's Basketball Team played with a lot of heart and courage. They had a number of games that were lost by a last second shot. With the new recruits and the old ones, next year should be a much better season for Coach Wilkerson and the Men's Basketball team.

It seems on the UMES campus that the Lady Hawks are often overlooked and lack the support of the UMES student body. We at the HAWK 1992 feel that this is outrageous and we felt that it was necessary to display their 12-4 winning MEAC record (right). Coach Willie Simon and all the Lady Hawks we take this time out to say that we are proud of you!!!!

A feeling of relief comes over this runner as he crosses the finish line at UMES' annual Spring Relay.

(Below) It take precision and much practice to correctly hand off a baton. It seems that these ladies have it down to a science.

UMES TRACK TAKES MEAC

UMES' Ladies Track Team wins MEAC Championship!!!

Among the many observers at the 1992 Spring Relays, was President Hytche, and many other faculty members. President Hytche isn't just an avid UMES basketball fan; but he is also a track & field lover.

The long hours of practice, and strenuous work-out program enforced by Coach Hodge payed off. At the MEAC Track Championships, held at Florida A&M this year, the Lady Hawk Track Team came in first place. The men came in third place and missed second by one point, and first by three.

At the MEAC Championships Coach Neville Hodge was voted the MEAC Coach of the Year. This was a fitting award to a dedicated coach like Coach Hodge. Not only does Mr. Hodge coach at UMES, but he has also participated in the Summer Olympics, and this year he will coach the Virgin Island's Olympic track team.

Both Coach Hodge and the Lady Hawk Track Team deserve the awards they received. Their hard and diligent work proved to be helpful when they were running that last lap! CONGRATULATIONS!!

LET'S GO, HEY, ALLRIGHT, HEY!
YOU NEED TO BE A MIGHTY HAWK!
SO LET'S GOOOO!

(Far right) Renee, captian of the Pom Pom Squad, leads her squad back to the hall-way after a very fine performance.

OTHER UMES TEAMS SHOW THEIR PRIDE BY GIVING IT ALL THEY'VE GOT.

GO UMES!

With the added attention placed on the Basketball Season, a lot of times the other UMES sports are overlooked. The Hawk 1992, would like to take this time to congratulate all of the Athletic teams here at UMES.

With a record of 11-13, the Women's Volleyball team showed much promise for future seasons. Increasing their win and losing percentage by .14% was a great improvement by UMES' Baseball team. They ended up with a 13-33 season record. The Women's tennis team ended the season with a 8-3 record, while the Men had a losing 3-8 season. In its first year as an official NCAA Sport at UMES, the softball team didn't do to bad. With an overall record of 8-16, I'm sure with experience and time they will become a force to be reckoned with in the MEAC Conference.

Way to go UMES teams we are proud of each and every one of you!!!

FLASH BACK

DO YOU REMEMBER THIS FREE THROW SHOT?

If not, don't feel bad because we at the HAWK 1992 don't remember it either. We were running short on fillers so we thought we would use this shot to close the Sports Section. (Smile!)

Seriously, Marlon Kimbrew makes a free throw shot in a heated battle against arch rival Delaware State. The men played a very tough game but the final result was 65-90 Hornets.
